

My Daddy Sits Upon a Star: A Book to Help Console a Child Whose Father Has Died

By Lcsw Claire Grainger-Valvano

Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 218 x 136 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Who has not lost a loved one? Unfortunately, the balance of life often walks hand in hand with the concept of loss. The winding journey of grief can present a myriad of emotions including conflicting thoughts of moving ahead with life while maintaining a connection to the deceased loved one. My Daddy Sits Upon a Star follows the life of a child who had a strong and loving relationship with his father. This love endured as his father was diagnosed and treated for a chronic illness. Yet after battling his disease, the brave father died. Even though his father's physical presence was missed, the child developed a way to maintain an everlasting connection to his father's spirit. Coming to terms with the loss of a loved one and maintaining an enduring link to them can make all the difference in coping with grief and transitioning into a life of peaceful acceptance. While grieving children will understand this book's message, most who have lost a loved one will find a meaningful message with.
