Mariner Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 160 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 5.9in. x 0.5in. HERE AT EAGLE POND is Donald Halls remarkable collection of essays about the permanent and transparent memory of place and of his coming home to Eagle Pond, New Hampshire, where he grew up and returned to live with his wife Jane Kenyon at the age of 45, where he began writing poems at the age of twelve, and where his ancestors made their livings by free-lancing as farmers. In these tender essays, Hall tells of the joys and quiddities of life in the ancestral New Hampshire place formerly worked as a dairy farm by his grandparents; of the comforts and discomforts of a world in which the year has four seasons -- maple sugar, blackfly, Red Sox, and winter. These essays are also Donald Halls letters to friends, answers to such life-altering questions as: What would our lives be like, living here at Eagle Pond, in solitude among relics and memories, in a countryside of birches and GMC pickups And they are ghost stories as well: vivid descriptions of Halls intimate connection with the land and with his family past. Most importantly, HERE AT EAGLE POND is Donald Halls coming home to language. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
