Right Now Publishing, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Wisdom is the power to see what is always and already right and true. It s that aspect of ourselves that innately possesses the ability to discern truth from falsehood. Nevertheless, when we re born, we didn t come with an operating manual showing us how to live from our natural state of wisdom. All the parts were in the box, but the directions were left out. And since most around us haven t awakened their inner sage, it s no wonder we experience so many challenges in life. And yet if wisdom really is fully present and available within each one of us, why does it seem so difficult to access and live from? If wisdom is a flower that only blossoms under the proper conditions, we are wise to know what those conditions are. Conversely, we are wise to notice what suppresses our innate wisdom so that it s opposite quality, ignorance, doesn t blossom. After all, wouldn t the quality of our lives then, ultimately be dependent upon which half blooms? What might happen if we put aside everything we ve accumulated up to this point, and suspend all that we think we know for a time, for the very real possibility of experiencing a different reality, right now? What might happen if we approach concepts we may have been exposed to before in a very different manner - a manner without expectations, conclusions, agreements or disagreements - and without any reference to the mind to tell us what s real and true? When Wisdom Blooms - Awaken the Sage Within explores these questions and more in depth, with the intent of discovering...
