

There s A Monster In My Popcorn

By Erin Worley Slemp

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Chuck Slemp (illustrator). 222 x 203 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .One should never underestimate the breadth of a child s imagination. From dreams of grandeur to fears of monsters lurking in unsuspecting places, a child s mind operates, in many ways, on a different level than adults. There s A Monster In My Popcorn provides an example of the power of the imagination while giving a riveting story about a little girl whose imagination runs wild. There s A Monster In My Popcorn depicts the events of a typical Saturday morning for any child: watching cartoons, crafts, coloring, and snack food. However, when her bowl of popcorn appears to be moving, young Claire s ordinary Saturday morning becomes filled with disorder, fear, and worry of a monster living on the inside of her popcorn bowl. I know it s probably big and green and fuzzy with two big eyes and two smelly feet just like I watch on TV, she exclaims. With the reassurance of her mother, Claire confronts the popcorn monster of her runaway imagination while revealing greater life truths. The story serves as...
